

Non-Reciprocated Love

You give your all
So others won't take a fall
You're always there, when they call

But is it all worth it
When you need of them- and make a call
All they give you is a head nod an eye bat and treat you like a stray cat
Step all over you like a doormat

Is non-reciprocated love worth it

- It's not -

I don't know how I manage to ignore suicide or the desire to commit a homicide
Instead, I chose to hide, in order to survive
And let those fuckers also stay alive
