

Stingray

You'll daily be my ray
And for you- I'll daily pray

If I love you today
Would you promise to love me tomorrow
Even if I can't stay

Mistake after Mistake

My actions will ache
Like the pierce of a stingray

But know,
Tomorrow will never see a day
That you- I will betray

Because I love you today and I'll love you tomorrow

And 'us', no one can take
