About Us

Welcome to Mama Maria's Kitchen, a culinary haven born from the dreams and determination of Marie Salo. Our story is one of family, resilience, and a commitment to preserving the rich tapestry of Ukrainian cuisine.

In 1974, Marie's husband, George, laid the foundation for our journey with the establishment of State Meats butcher shop. As the business flourished, Marie's passion for authentic, homemade Ukrainian food took center stage. Despite the challenges that followed George's passing in 1990, Marie single-handedly raised four children while nurturing her dream of creating a kitchen that would capture the essence of traditional Ukrainian flavors.

In 2008, that dream became a reality with the birth of Mama Maria's Kitchen. A culinary sanctuary where the aroma of old-world recipes fills the air, and every dish is a tribute to the warmth of your own baba's kitchen. The decor, inspired by Marie's eclectic taste and adorned with her favorite flowers, the poppy, creates an inviting atmosphere that feels like home.

In December of 2023, Mama Maria bid farewell, leaving behind a culinary legacy that continues to thrive under the ownership of her son, George. Today, Mama Maria's Kitchen stands as a testament to the enduring spirit of a woman who turned challenges into triumphs, creating a space where generations come together to savor the flavors of tradition. Join us on a journey through time and taste, where each bite tells a story and each recipe is a cherished piece of Mama Maria's legacy. At Mama Maria's Kitchen, every meal is a celebration of family, love, and the enduring spirit of Ukrainian culinary heritage.
