

DSG Risk Disclosures

1. Risks

These DSG Risk Disclosures (“Risk Disclosures”) provide you with information about the risks associated with DSG Services. This notice provides a general and non-exhaustive description of the risks when you use DSG Services.

These Risk Disclosures do not explain all of the risks or how such risks relate to your personal circumstances. It is important that you fully understand the risks involved before deciding to use DSG Services.

2. No advice

We do not provide personal advice in relation to our products or services. We sometimes provide information about transaction procedures and information about the potential risks. However, any decision to use our products or services is made by you. DSG is not your broker, intermediary, agent, or advisor and has no fiduciary relationship or obligation to you in connection with any trades or other decisions or activities undertaken by you using DSG Services. We do not monitor whether your use of DSG Services is consistent with your financial goals and objectives. It is up to you to assess whether your financial resources are adequate for your financial activity with us, and to your risk appetite in the products and services you use. Please consult professional advisers where you deem it appropriate.

No communication or information provided to you by DSG is intended as, or shall be considered or construed as, investment advice, financial advice, legal advice, trading advice, tax advice, or any other sort of advice. You are solely responsible for determining whether any investment, investment strategy or related transaction is appropriate for you according to your personal investment objectives, financial circumstances, and risk tolerance. Please consult professional advisers where you deem it appropriate.

3. No tax advice

You are solely responsible for determining what taxes you might be liable to, and how they apply, when transacting through the DSG Services. It is your responsibility to report and pay any taxes that may arise from transacting on the DSG Services, and you acknowledge that DSG does not provide legal or tax advice relative to these transactions. If you have any doubts about your tax status or obligations when using DSG Services, or with respect to the Assets held to the credit of your DSG account, you may wish to seek independent advice.

You acknowledge that, when, where and as required by applicable legislation, DSG shall report information regarding your transactions, transfers, distributions or payments to tax or other public authorities. Similarly, when, where and as required by applicable law, DSG shall withhold taxes related to your transactions, transfers, distributions or payments. Applicable legislation could also prompt DSG to request you for additional tax information, status, certificates or documentation. You acknowledge that failure to answer these requests within the timeframe defined, may result in withholding taxes by DSG, to be remitted to tax authorities as defined by relevant law. You are encouraged to seek professional and personal tax advice regarding the above and before making any transaction.

4. Market risks

Trading on the DSG marketplace is subject to high market risk and price volatility. Changes in value may be significant and may occur rapidly and without warning. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance. The value of an investment and any returns can go down as well as up, and you may not get back the amount you had invested.

5. Liquidity risks

Assets may have limited liquidity which may make it difficult or impossible for you to sell or exit a position when you wish to do so. This may occur at any time, including at times of rapid price movements.

6. Fees

DSG's fees are set out in the Fee Schedule.

7. Availability risks

- (a) We do not guarantee that the DSG Services will be available at any particular time or that DSG Services will not be subject to unplanned service outages or network congestion. It may not be possible for you to buy, sell, store, transfer, send or receive Assets when you wish to do so.
- (b) There are legal requirements in various countries which may restrict the products and services that DSG can lawfully provide. Accordingly, some products and services and/or certain functionality within the Platform may not be available or may be restricted in certain jurisdictions or regions or to certain Users and any DSG campaigns, user competitions or other promotions will not be open to (and are not targeted at or intended for) Users to whom restrictions apply. Users are responsible for informing themselves about and observing any restrictions and/or requirements imposed with respect to the access to and use of the Platform and the DSG Services in each jurisdiction from which the Platform and the DSG Services are accessed by or on behalf of the User. DSG reserves the right to change, modify or impose additional restrictions with respect to the access to and use of the Platform and/or the DSG Services from time to time in its sole discretion without notification.

8. Third party risks

Third parties, such as payment providers, custodians, and other partners may be involved in the provision of DSG Services. You may be subject to the terms & conditions of these third parties, and DSG may not be responsible for any loss that these third parties may cause to you.

9. Security risks

It is not possible for DSG to eliminate all security risks. You are responsible for keeping your DSG Account password safe, and you may be responsible for all the transactions under your DSG Account, whether you authorised them or not. Transactions may be irreversible, and losses due to fraudulent or unauthorised transactions may not be recoverable.

10. Risks related to digital assets

Given the nature of digital assets and their underlying technologies, there are a number of intrinsic risks, including but not limited to:

- (a) faults, defects, hacks, exploits, errors, protocol failures or unforeseen circumstances occurring in respect of a digital asset or the technologies or economic systems on which the digital asset rely;
 - (b) delays causing a transaction not be settled on the scheduled delivery date, or extending the transaction time; and
 - (c) attacks on the protocol or technologies on which a digital asset depends, including, but not limited to:
 - (i) distributed denial of service;
 - (ii) sybil attacks;
 - (iii) hacking;
 - (iv) smurfing; and
 - (v) malware.

11. Ongoing market risks

DSG markets are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Rapid price changes may occur at any time, including outside of normal business hours.

12. Communication risks

When you communicate with us via electronic communication, you should be aware that electronic communications can fail, can be delayed, may not be secure and/or may not reach the intended destination.
