A Toast:

THERE ARE GOOD SHIPS
AND THERE ARE WOOD SHIPS
TO SAIL THE LAKE AND SEA
BUT THE BEST SHIPS ARE FRIENDSHIPS
OF OLD AND SOME TO BE.

Cocktails

Champagne Cocktail 12

New York 1862

Jerry Thomas, Sparkling Cava with a demerara sugar cube soaked in bitters and finished with expressed lemon oil. One of the earliest recorded cocktails, first printed in Jerry Thomas's pioneering bartending guide.

Hotel Nacional 13

Havana, Cuba 1933

Aged rum shaken with pineapple, lime, and apricot liqueur with a touch of Angostura bitters. Created at Havana's famed Hotel Nacional during Cuba's golden age of cocktails.

Clover Club 14

Philadelphia 1898

Gin shaken with raspberry, lemon, and egg white for a silky, elegant sour. Named for a Phila club of journalists, lawyers, and politicians who gathered at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel.

Mexican Firing Squad 14

Mexico City 1937

Reposado tequila with lime and pomegranate cordial, finished with Angostura bitters. Recorded by traveler Charles H. Baker during his adventures through Mexico.

Cosmopolitan 13

Cook / DeGroff, New York Late 1980s

Citron vodka and Cointreau with cranberry and lime, finished with a flamed orange peel. Perfected at the Rainbow Room and propelled to fame after Madonna was photographed drinking one.

Japanese Cocktail 15

Jerry Thomas, New York 1862

Rémy VSOP cognac with almond orgeat and aromatic bitters. Created in New York to honor a visiting delegation from Japan.
