

FLIP YOUR BILLS NOT YOUR FREEDOM™

A Courage Economy™ Guide to Building Daily Income, Debt-Free Funding, and Household Freedom

Discover how faith, strategy, and community cooperation can help you turn everyday expenses into economic power, lead your home like a business, and multiply impact through service and stewardship.

BIBLICAL FOUNDATION

THE ANT & THE BLUEPRINT

"Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise." —
Proverbs 6:6

The ant doesn't wait for instructions. It doesn't borrow without a plan. It stores, cooperates, builds, and moves with purpose. In the same way, Flip Your Bills | Not Your Freedom™ is a strategy inspired by diligence, discipline, and vision. Like the ant, we move as a unit—each home doing its part, each action multiplied by another.

We call this mindset Home Inc.™—a philosophy where every household is led like a business, managed with intention, and powered by the faith of a cooperative economy. We think like a bank, budget like a steward, and build like a community.

Through faith, focus, and partnership, this movement transforms everyday bill-payers into builders of daily income and debt-free opportunity.

FLIP YOUR BILLS | NOT YOUR FREEDOM™

"The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute." — Proverbs 12:24

Most people spend money every day—on food, fuel, rent, subscriptions, and more. But very few are taught how to make those bills produce anything in return. Flip Your Bills | Not Your Freedom™ flips that paradigm.

For just $50, anyone can begin a 21-Day Challenge to:

- Use the GRE Formula™ : “Half of What You Get, You Keep. The Rest You Give Away.”
- Walk away from Compound Debt and into Compound Freedom
- Stay in control of your money—no loans, no gimmicks
- Tap into MyEcon’s Personal Finance Tools through our affiliate partnership
- Refer Three to Be Free™ – Invite 3, and your $50 is returned

No loans. No risk. No loss of control. Every participant keeps 100% control of their money and their path forward. We equip each family to begin building wealth from day one with a simple, duplicatable process that grows as their network and knowledge grow.

As in the story of the ant, this only works when we act, build, and move together.

USE YOUR CREDIT & LEVERAGE YOUR WAY

"Through wisdom is an house built; and by understanding it is established." — Proverbs 24:3
