The End-Time Ox Anointing

by Roberts Liardon

In Scripture and in revival history, we have different animals that are symbols of anointings. The most famous one is the dove. Yet the dove is only mentioned once in the New Testament at Jesus' water baptism, and it had nothing to do with the Church!

The eagle and the lion are two other great symbols of the Holy Spirit's anointing that have had their moments. But the eagle has gone to rest, and the lion is under the tree sleeping!

The Anointing of This Hour: The Ox

However, not all of the Church's sacred animals have left; there is one that is still here for this time, and we find it in Proverbs 14:4: By the strength of an ox, there is much increase. The ox is a very important symbolic animal in this end-time hour.

In American history during the days of the Old West, the ox was the beast Americans valued most, because an ox doesn't respond to the environment the way the horse or mule sometimes does.

An ox responds to its nature. The ox kept pulling that wagon, no matter what.

When the day was blazing hot, the ox might have been sweating, but it kept pulling. In the middle of a blizzard, the ox kept pulling. When it rained and the wheels got stuck in the mud, the ox would keep pulling to get that wagon unstuck to the point of hurting itself. The environment never stopped an ox from doing what it was supposed to do. And the ox never complained; it just got the job done.

Ministry Around the World!

BOLIVIA

2024 will bring me to a country that has been on my heart for many years. For the first time, I am coming to Bolivia. Kathryn Kuhlman prophesied over a young man who would take Bolivia by storm. It happened just like she said. God used this healing evangelist in a powerful way, but he was martyred for the Gospel's sake. A massive revival has hit this western-central South American nation, and we are going there this year!

Thank you God for faithful partners and friends!

Gene and Edna Grove are our family's oldest and dearest friends. Their lives were changed forever when my mom invited Edna to church and she gave her heart to the Lord. Gene followed shortly after, and our families have been friends ever since. They are amazing Christians, and they have been partners with RLM for decades.

You may be thinking, Who is this special lady? Her name is Ruby Ann Lagana (Holtz), and she is 92. She was my 2nd-grade Sunday school teacher. All these years, God has had her pray for me and my ministry. I am so honored that she is one of my faithful prayer warriors. Thank you, Ruby Ann!
