

MELBA CULP

ROCKMETAL ARTIST

Melba Culp is a rockmetal band known for its cinematic and theatrical elements while bridging the genres of both rock and metal. Formed in Austin, TX in 2015 by vocalist and multi-instrumentalist Jack McConnell, the band released its debut single "Never Surrender" in 2019. The thrash-inspired tune vowed rebellion against all of the world's empires. However, upon defeating the last of the world's evil empires, the temptation of power proved too much for the band leader.

"...a must hear band...their ferocious track...as they send lightning through your veins." - Music Junkie Press

"...a breath of fresh air, standing astride the border of the hard rock and heavy metal genres." - Frenzy Fire

"Fire set!" - Anthony Stevenson (Come and Take It Live)

In June 2024, Jack McConnell of Melba Culp crowned himself king and announced a new vision for the band (or lack thereof, after the execution of his bandmates). The sole-member of Melba Culp now seeks to take peasant listeners on a journey to celebrate the dark side of humanity and excellence of the ruling class. The first new installment, a full-length album titled A Darkened Rose, is due September 6th, 2024.

This short biography is approved by Melba Culp's majority shareholder; Dark Pebble, Inc.
