

SLLEG – Physician Conference Presentations Award

The SLLEG will reimburse 1 current LEG member annually for attendance and presentation of a research paper or other course content at a recognized physician conference up to a maximum of $5,000.00.

This award is intended to provide some recognition of the work and cost required to attend a physician conference and present a research paper or other course content. It is not intended to compensate fully for the cost of this event.

Criteria:

Eligible costs include conference registration fees and travel costs.

SLLEG – Physician Conference Presentations Award Application

Dear SLLEG,

I am pleased to inform you that I have attended and presented at a recognized physician conference during the current year as a current member of the SLLEG. I would like to apply for the SLLEG Physician Conference Presentations Award (up to $5,000.00)

Please select which area of research or interest you presented:

- ☐ Research
- ☐ Other (please specify) _____

Please attach the following to your application

- ☐ Copy of the paper presented at the conference
- ☐ Conference Registration Fee Receipt
- ☐ Any Travel Receipts to the event

Please submit this application and receipts to lmcnaughton@slmhc.on.ca for reimbursement.

Name _____ Date _____

Approval by SLLEG President or member of the executive:

Approval Signature _____ Date _____

This award is intended to provide some recognition of the work and cost required to attend a physician conference and present a research paper or other course content. It is not intended to compensate fully for the cost of this event.