Scripture: 1 Thessalonians 5:11

---

1. _____ is the antidote to discouragement. _____ is the encouragement of discouragement.
2. The vital encouragement we ourselves need from God, we are giving to _____. (Romans 12:15)
3. Find something you have had to be encouraged about and find somebody going through that same or similar thing and be their _____.
4. God is looking for some _____ in the church. (Hebrews 10:25)
5. Depression doesn't mean you're unspiritual; depression means you're _____ right now.
6. The reason you don't have to give up is because God always has a source to _____ you, and his primary source is people He brings into your life.
7. One of the reasons God allows you to become discouraged is so that when you are encouraged, you have _____ in an area somebody else is going to need. (Hebrews 4:15)
8. There is purpose in your pain, and the purpose will always be tied to _____, to be an encourager.
9. An encourager is not just someone who says the word but who wants to know if there's anything they can do to _____.
10. The ministry of the church is to mobilize the membership to _____ for one another. (Romans 15:4-5)
11. Hope is joyful _____ about the future.
12. Our job as encouragers is to say, "God is still on the throne, you're still here, and He still has a _____."
