

1 Samuel 1:9-20 (Reference 1 Sam. 1:1-20)

Rev. Byron A. Jackson, M.Div.

---

1. Hannah is a wife during a time of _____.
2. The setting of this story is during a time of _____. Lack is the backdrop for the text.
3. Hannah is anguished because her counterpart, _____, is her rival, gloating because of what Hannah lacks. Hannah's womb has been closed by _____.
4. Hannah finds herself in what we would call _____.
5. Elkanah believes that his _____ for her should be enough to satisfy her sadness. He _____ her issue, but thinks that he should be enough. Some _____ only God can fix.
6. Hannah lived in a world where she had a need, a desire, a problem that no one _____.
7. Her distress leads to a request for God's attention and blessing. While in the temple, Hannah _____.
8. Her petition asks for _____ to be _____, yet she boldly asks God to help anyway.
9. Hannah prays _____ her heart and God answers. Therefore, you and I must know that God _____ our hearts.
10. Therefore, prayer is a practice of turning one's heart _____ God.
11. Her distress catches the attention of the _____ who accuses her of being _____.
12. Hannah does not pray from a place of posture and _____, she prays to God from her current _____.
13. Eli partnered with her only _____ he knew what was wrong. May we not be so _____.

14. She felt _____ once she prayed. Her spirit was lifted not by the child, but by the freedom and pleasure of _____ my problem to the One who can handle it.

15. She put herself in _____, and God did the _____.

16. She was faithful to keep the promise she made to God in her _____.
Samuel means _____.
