

Pastor Byron A. Jackson, M.Div.

1. You and I were called to be _____.
2. Servanthood is the willingness to humble oneself and act for the _____ of _____ in the name of Christ.
3. It's an _____ followed by an action that aims to improve the _____ of another.
4. Service is supposed to be the ministry of the church, where we are taking our gifts and our skills, our time and our talent and our resources to _____ to others outside ourselves. (Galatians 5:13 - Summary Verse)
5. Servanthood is the willingness to _____ oneself, to _____ for the well-being of others in the name of Christ.
6. Every Christian has been given a spiritual _____, a spiritual enablement in order to serve the family of God.
7. God has a specific _____ for you, and that function is true to how you were made.
8. We must develop a servant's _____. What can I do with the gifts, skills, time and talents that God has given me to improve the well-being of others?
9. The motivation for your servanthood is _____. (Galatians 5:1)
10. Freedom is removal from illegitimate _____ so that you can maximize your potential.
11. One of the greatest ways to express the fact of your freedom is to set others _____.
12. When you understand that Jesus Christ has set you free, you don't mind being a _____.
13. Give to give so God can give to you, and that comes through _____.

14. We are to help each other progress _____ through the ministry we carry out because we ourselves have been set free.

15. To refuse to be a servant is to _____ the new life God has given us when we accepted Jesus Christ and had our sins forgiven.