PHOTO RIGHTS & PERMISSIONS

Copyright Information

The Gresham Historical Society is the owner of the materials in the Research Library and makes available reproductions for research, publication, and other uses. Written permission must be obtained from the Research Library prior to any use of reproductions. The Society does not necessarily hold copyright to all of the materials in the collections. In some cases, permission for use may require seeking additional authorization from the copyright owners.

- Permission is granted for one-time use only as described on the Permission Form.
- Permission is non-exclusive and not transferable.
- Use fees are assessed according to type of use.
- All reproductions must be credited to the Gresham Historical Society Research Library with proper citation to the image number, collection name and number, or original publication.
- Accompanying captions must indicate all changes made to the original copy, such as significant cropping, tinting, superimposing, digital alteration.
- Maximum resolution for Web site usage is 72 dots per inch (640x480 pixels).
- Web site usage requires a credit line (see above) on the same page as the image.
- User assumes all responsibility for possible copyright infringement and invasion of privacy arising from the use of reproductions.

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research. If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
