TĀBOR ADMONICIOUS

A Perpetual Enigma of Grace

Admonishing the Unmerciful

When we help one another think again, we make room to act more mercifully.

THEIR STORY

Tābor is quick to question a neighbor's certainty. A kind question in return reminds them to examine their own. Together, they find a wiser way to care.

THEIR NEED

Patient help examining their own assumptions—and accepting correction.

THEIR GIFT

Asking difficult questions without abandoning the friendship.

GRACE IN MOTION

They listen, think again, recognize harm, and help make amends.
