

The Big Test

John the Baptist said, "Repent.
I am he whom God has sent.
One is coming after me.
He will set the people free.
Make your choice. If you obey,
I will baptize you today."

Jesus was whom John spoke of.
Baptized Him; then from above,
The Spirit came to guide and bless,
And led Him in the wilderness.
Because Jesus was a man,
Satan had a tempting plan.

"If you really are God's Son,
Show me that you are the One.
Take this stone and make some bread."
But Jesus spoke what God had said.
"Man needs more than bread alone.
Satan, you can keep your stone."

Satan put him on the roof.
"Jump! And let me see some proof.
If God's word is really true,
Angels will look after you."
Jesus' answer was the best.
"Do not put God to the test."

Satan showed Him his domain.
Made his offer very plain.
"I'll give you this world right now.
If you'll worship me and bow."
Jesus answered, "Go Away!
Worship God the scriptures say."
