

Not Guilty

Jesus was condemned to die.
The crowd kept chanting, "Crucify!"
But no one knew the reason why,
Because He was not guilty.

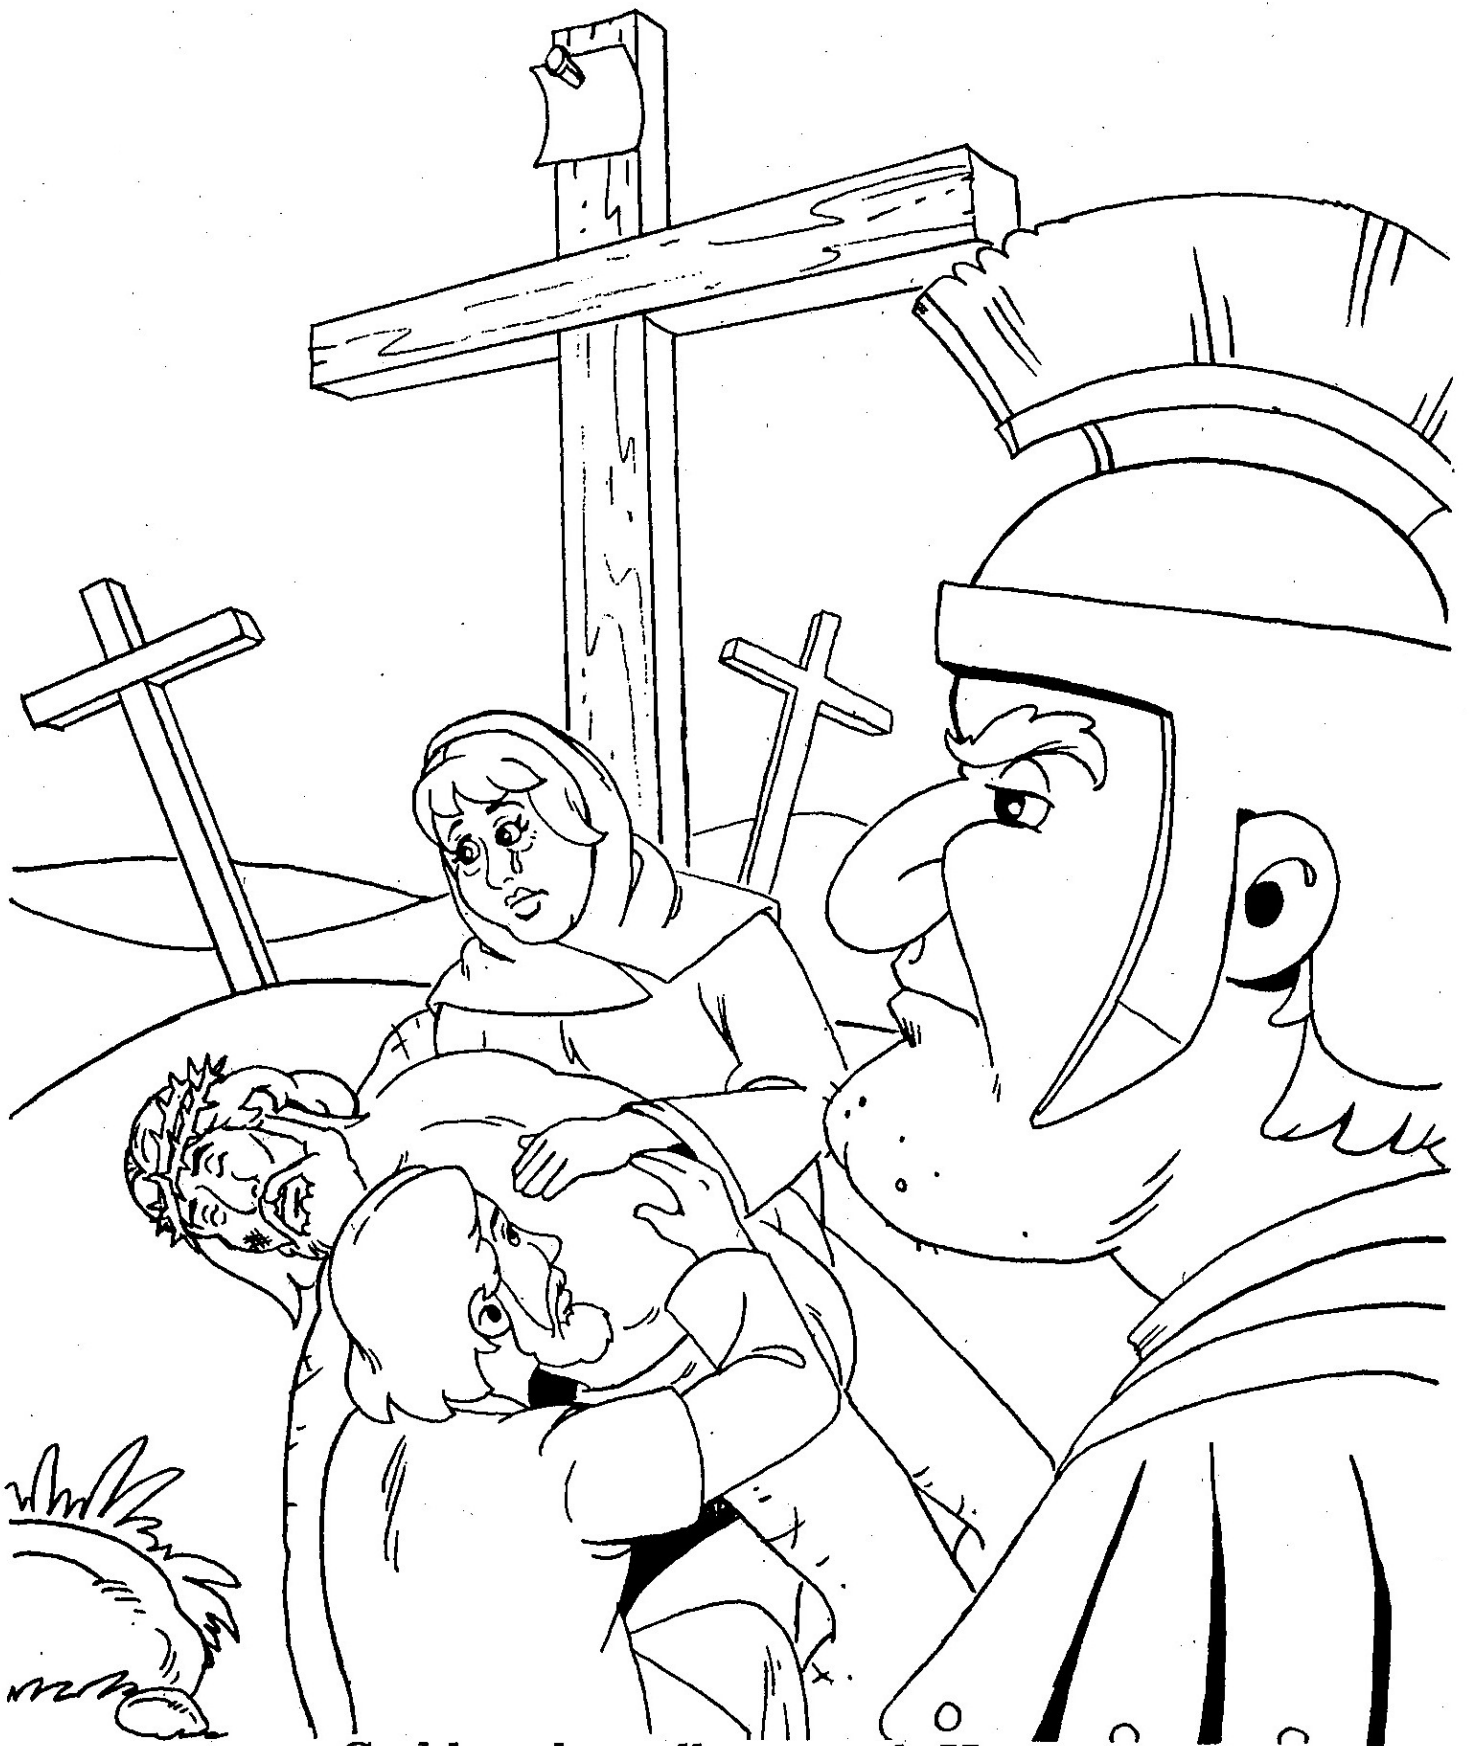

They nailed His body to the tree.
They raised it up for all to see.
He took our sins, and set us free.
Because He was not guilty.

That day at three, the sun turned black.
And God in heaven turned His back.
While Satan made his last attack.
They knew He was not guilty.

Two thieves were crucified that day.
The law demanded that they pay.
In sorrow, Jesus heard one say,
"I know you are not guilty."

God loved us all, so much He gave,
His only son, who died to save.
God didn't leave Him in the grave.
Because He was not guilty.
