

Words

Jesus walked to town one day.
Saw a fig tree by the way.
Stopped to have a little lunch.
Found no figs that He could munch.

Jesus said, "This tree will die."
Peter heard it. Wondered why?
"Surely makes no sense to me,
Why He's talking to a tree."

Next day, coming back from town,
All the leaves were hanging down.
"Master, look! The tree is dead.
It has happened," Peter said.

Jesus spoke, "When you believe,
What you speak, you will receive.
Mountains move. No force can block,
The power of your faith-filled talk."

Remember, every time you pray,
God will hear the words you say.
You don't have to scream or shout.
Just believe and never doubt!
