

Alive!

Mary came to mourn and cry,
To bring perfume, and say good-bye.
The grave was empty. Still in shock,
Mary heard an angel talk.

The angel said, "He is not here.
He is alive, so have no fear.
Go tell your friends what I have said.
Jesus is risen from the dead!"

Behind locked doors they were afraid.
Since Jesus died, that's where they stayed.
When He appeared He ate some bread,
To show them that He was not dead.

Amazed, they stood and saw Him rise.
They watched Him leave with tear-filled eyes.
They must obey His last command,
To preach the Word in every land.

Two men in white appeared to tell,
That Jesus was alive and well.
Before the Angels went away,
They said, "He's coming back someday."
