

PERFORMING Arts ASSOCIATION

Historic Saint Joseph, Missouri

October 2021

Dear Arts Patron,

Performing Arts Association is ecstatic to be back doing Live Theatre again! I hope you attended our first two shows at the Missouri Theatre. Piano Men: A Tribute to Elton John & Billy Joel played to a full house with the second half of the show being a full on ROCK party. Two weeks later we had iconic comedian Yakov Smirnoff entertain us with his heart-warming stories and hilarious anecdotes.

The last three Live Performances:

- Thursday, November 4, PAA continues with the mesmerizing dance group, Catapult. The show is filled with humor, emotion and engaging stories. You will leave the show wondering how they accomplished those magical shapes.
- Thursday, March 10, all new musical production of the Church Basement Ladies: You Smell Barn at 2:00 and 7:30pm. Always hilarious and down to earth, this time we visit the ladies at work on their farms.
- Thursday, April 7, Neil Berg's 50 Years of Rock N Roll. This is no tribute show, it's a full on musical revue featuring Broadway performers.

One virtual performance for children:

- For 3 weeks in February and March 2022, PAA has partnered with Rolling Hills Library to bring a free, entertaining and educational online series that combines STEAM curriculum called Page Turner Adventures. K – 5th Grade.

The Performing Arts Association needs help from the community to keep bringing these incredible LIVE shows to St. Joseph, to inspire, comfort & uplift our community. Your support is vital! Ticket sales are an important source of revenue, but it only covers a small portion of the show's production and educational activities. This season, in order to keep our budget balanced we need to raise $26,000.

We thank you for considering your gift. You can send your gift back the remit envelope, or drop it by the office. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the Performing Arts Association office.

With Sincere Appreciation,

Beth Sharp, Director
