The participation fee covers the program activities, daily drinks and Water Ice Wednesday. Special activities, field trips & swimming are included.

Children are provided with supervised inside and outside activities that include games, crafts and sports. There are planned additional trips and special activities that include:

- Swimming each Friday
- Schuylkill River Greenways
- Visits from the Pottstown Library
- The Challenger Learning Center (Grades 5-8)
- Beverly's Pastry Shop will come and decorate cupcakes with the children
- Brush Strokes Pottery – children will make a useful piece of pottery to cherish a lifetime
- And MORE

Permission slips and payment for trips due one day prior to the trip.

The times of the regularly scheduled program may change from time to time depending on the nature of our trips and special events. These changes will be outlined on the calendar. A complete schedule of activities will be available the first day you attend or on our website at www.pottsgroverec.com. Your child may attend playground on the days they are available. Daily attendance prior to the trips is strongly suggested. Children will be offered drinks including bottled water daily. Water Ice will be provided to all children on Wednesdays. Please make sure staff is aware of any allergies on Day One.

Please return one registration form per child along with the participation fee to the address indicated.
