The Pottsgrove Summer Recreation Program is for children who reside within the Pottsgrove School District and who have completed kindergarten through 8th grade. The participation fee covers the program activities. The trips are an additional fee.

Children are provided with supervised inside and outside activities that include games, crafts and sports. There are planned additional trips that include:

- The Carousel at Pottstown
- Swimming
- Skating
- Ozzy's Family Fun Center

Permission slips and payment for trips due one day prior to the trip.

The times of the regularly scheduled program may change from time to time depending on the nature of our trips and special events. These changes will be outlined on the calendar. A complete schedule of activities will be available the first day you attend or on our website at www.pottsgroverec.com. Your child may attend playground on the days they are available. Daily attendance prior to the trips is strongly suggested. Juice drinks and water will be available for a minimal cost.

Please return one registration form per child along with the participation fee to the address indicated.

Registration Deadline June 5th to receive a FREE T-shirt

This is an independent organization and not affiliated with the Pottsgrove School District.
