

Surrey land assembly sold for high-density redevelopment

Sukh Johal, City2City Real Estate Investment Services
Jun 5, 2018 3:14 PM

A land assembly in Surrey has sold for $7.7 million, according to City2City Real Estate Services.

The two properties total four acres of development land, designated for high-density residential projects. The property is located in the Abbey Ridge/Fraser Heights area, across the street from a new single-family subdivision. The site was listed for $8 million.

The properties are located at 9684 and 9716 182A Ave., Surrey.