

Flavors of Miami – Self-Guided Itinerary

Where Stories Sizzle and Culture Travels with You

Welcome to Miami, where every bite has a backstory and every block hums with heritage. From Afro-Caribbean beats to Cuban cafés and street art to soulful brunches, this 2-day flavor trail was crafted to hit all five senses — curated by Culinary Culture Tours with a Global Griot twist.

Here, we honor the griot tradition: storytellers, culture-keepers, and vibe curators. Whether it's Zola & Ziya guiding your path or a local chef serving ancestral spice, this isn't just a trip — it's a journey through taste, time, and tradition.
