

This AGREEMENT is by and between REM Inspecting LLC and the Client. The Client agrees to contract with REM Inspecting LLC and REM Inspecting LLC agrees to perform work as outlined and agreed to by both parties via Email or Text. For all inspections, the Inspector will provide to the Client a written report via email after payment of all fees is received. Payment is due at time of service.

1. Purpose and Scope: The visual inspection and report will conform to current Standards of Practice set forth in Wisconsin State Statute 440.975 and SPS 131 Subchapter IV of the Wisconsin Administrative Code. Home inspections are an activity that is regulated in Wisconsin, and so this contract will refer to sections of Wisconsin law that affect this contract. The inspection is intended to detect observable conditions of an improvement to residential real property, subject to certain limitations. Other add on inspections and/or tests may be agreed to by both parties for an additional fee as outlined in writing/email/text.

The inspection is not technically exhaustive. This inspection does not cover any latent defects or defects not reasonably observable during the inspection, including but not limited to, recent repairs, paint or covering that may conceal current or prior defects, whether deliberately concealed or otherwise. The inspection will not and cannot alert Inspector or the Client to conditions of the structure that are concealed, not readily accessible, or would require cleaning, alteration, excavation, or destructive testing. The Client understands that the Inspector will not dig, probe, dismantle equipment, or remove permanent materials or items that would be damaged by such, nor will Inspector enter unsafe or inaccessible areas to perform the inspection. Other limitations encountered during the inspections may be noted in the report itself.

2. Exclusions and Limitations: The following areas are excluded from the inspection under this contract:
- Calculating the strength, adequacy or efficiency of an improvement to residential real property or a component of an improvement to residential real property;
 - Entering any area or performing any procedure that may damage an improvement to residential real property or a component of an improvement to real property, or entering any area or performing any procedure that may be dangerous to the home inspector or other persons;
 - Operating any component of an improvement to residential real property that is inoperable;
 - Operating any component of an improvement to residential real property that does not respond to normal operating controls;
 - Disturbing insulation or moving personal items, furniture, equipment, vegetation, soil, snow, ice, or debris that obstructs access to or visibility of an improvement to residential real property;
 - Determining the effectiveness of a component of an improvement to residential real property;
 - Predicting future conditions, including the failure of a component of an improvement to residential real property;
 - Projecting or estimating the operating costs of a component of an improvement to residential real property;
 - Evaluating acoustic characteristics of a component of an improvement to residential real property;
 - Inspecting for the presence or absence of pests, including rodents, insects and wood damaging organisms;
 - Inspecting cosmetic items, underground items, or items not permanently installed;
 - Inspecting for the presence of any hazardous, or noxious substances;
 - Disassembling any component of an improvement to residential real property, except for removing unsecured/unsealed access panels that do not require the use of tools and is normally removed by an occupant of real property.
- 2.a The inspection also excludes opinions on:
- The life expectancy of an improvement;
 - Causes for needing major repairs;
 - The methods, materials, or cost of making repairs or corrections;
 - The suitability of improvements or components of improvements for a specialized use;
 - The presence of mold, the type of mold, potential locations of mold or effects of mold.

The Client agrees that the purpose of the home inspection is not to reduce the risk or likelihood of personal or bodily injury. Client therefore agrees not to sue inspector for bodily or personal injury.

3. Warranty: No warranties or guarantees are expressed or implied as a result of this inspection. The inspection report is valid only for the day and time of the inspection; building systems can develop problems at the most unexpected times or even on the day of the inspection. The Inspector is providing no guarantee or warranty. The Client recognizes that there is NO REPRESENTATION OF WARRANTY OR GUARANTEE OF EXPECTED OR REMAINING FUTURE LIFE FOR THE ITEMS INSPECTED. The inspection and report is not an insurance policy. Client agrees to arrange for the purchase of such insurance policy from others if Client so desires.

4. Confidential Agreement: Client agrees not to provide inspection report to any third party without the permission of the Inspector. In the event that Client provides the home inspection report to a third party without the permission of the Inspector and the third party relies on the inspection report, Client agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Inspector from any claims made by the third party against the Inspector and for all reasonable attorney's fees incurred in defending said claims.

5. Dispute Resolution Forum: Inspector and Client (and any other person claiming to have relied upon the inspection report) specifically agree that any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the inspection or other services provided under this contract, or breach thereof, including any negligence, tort or other claims, against the person who performed the inspection, shall be resolved exclusively by arbitration in accordance with the Wisconsin Association of Home Inspectors (WAHI) Dispute Resolution Program, as in effect on the date such controversy or claim arises, which is currently administered by Resolute Systems, Inc., subject to the applicable Wisconsin Statutes and the Administrative Rules. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Client retains the right to report home inspection problems to the Wisconsin Department of Safety and Professional Services. Information about the WAHI Dispute Resolution Program, including costs, fees, Rules and Procedures are available through:

If the Client feels that there was some deficiency or flaw in the inspection, he shall immediately contact the Inspector and schedule a meeting at the property before performing any repairs. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the problem and to allow the Inspector a chance to observe the problem firsthand, as it was discovered, without alteration or repair. If you have a problem with the inspection, call the Inspector right away. Performing repairs before the Inspector has an opportunity to review the problem could affect your legal rights. Client agrees to pay the reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred by Inspector (or the person performing the inspection on behalf of the Inspector) to enforce this provision.

6. Governing Law and Severability of Provisions: Wisconsin law shall govern this agreement. If any term or condition of this agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms and conditions herein shall not be affected thereby and shall remain valid and enforceable. Titles to paragraphs are for reference only.

7. Entire Agreement: This Agreement contains the entire understanding between the Inspector and the Client. There are no other representations, warranties, or commitments, expressed or implied, except as are specifically set forth herein. This Agreement supersedes any and all representation or discussion, whether oral or written, if any, among the parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. This Agreement may be modified, altered or amended only by a writing signed by the Inspector and the Client. Electronic signature is acceptable.

8. Fees: Services + Rates, The Client agrees to pay the Inspector the amounts as agreed to via email/text. The Client agrees to pay for travel to and from the project site at the MILEAGE rate of $1.00 per mile or as listed in the online pay Now website. The Client agrees to pay for any additional work performed at the request of the Client and agreed to by both parties via email/text at an HOURLY rate of $75 per hour with a minimum of 1 hour. The Client agrees to pay for any project expenses incurred in the performance of the services provided. Industry standard MARKUP rate will be added to the overall cost. The Client agrees to pay a BOOKKEEPING rate of $25 per month for any unpaid balance due.
