PASTOR'S CORNER

I'm not really much for goodbyes. One of the incredible things about being part of the family of God is that there is something, or rather Someone, that connects us for all of time and eternity. Not even death can separate us. So while I will cease being your pastor at the end of May, I will never stop being your friend and brother in Christ. It has been a great joy and honor to be your pastor these last three years and I am praying only the best for Josh and for all of you. And it won't be goodbye, it's just "till we meet again!"

With Love,

Pastor Sean

The Isaiah House will be our mission focus for May. There will be a list of ways we can help in the bulletin on May 10. All items for this project will be due by May 24.
