

THE HICKORY GOLF WORKSHOP

SUSTAINABILITY POLICY

December 2024
Stu Fraser - Owner

A COMMITMENT TO THE FUTURE

At the Hickory Golf Workshop, we are committed to preserving the legacy of golf while ensuring a sustainable future for generations to come.

Our dedication to environmental, social, and economic sustainability is embedded in all aspects of our operations.

ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY

Reclaimed Materials: We prioritise the use of reclaimed hickory clubs

Waste Reduction: Our workshop minimises waste by reusing materials where possible and responsibly recycling what cannot be reused.

Energy Efficiency: We aim to reduce our carbon footprint by utilising energy-efficient tools and technologies

Eco-friendly Packaging: All packaging materials are biodegradable or recyclable to reduce environmental impact.

Local Sourcing: We collaborate with local suppliers to reduce transportation emissions and support the local economy.

We actively promote golfing heritage by partnering with local schools, clubs, and organisations to share the history and craftsmanship of hickory golf

Our workshops are designed to be accessible and enjoyable for participants of all ages and abilities

We educate participants on the environmental benefits of preserving and reusing vintage equipment.

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

ECONOMIC SUSTAINABILITY

Supporting Local Tourism: We contribute to Scotland's tourism industry by promoting authentic, heritage-based experiences.

Collaborative Partnerships: We work with local businesses, tour operators, and event organisers to build mutually beneficial relationships.

Fair Pricing: Our pricing reflects the craftsmanship and sustainability of our products while remaining competitive and fair.

CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

We regularly review our practices to identify new opportunities for sustainability. By staying informed about advancements in eco-friendly technologies and practices, we aim to enhance our commitment to the environment and our community.

OUR PLEDGE

The Hickory Golf Workshop is proud to blend tradition with sustainability. We strive to honour golf's past while building a greener, more responsible future.

This policy will be reviewed annually to ensure ongoing relevance and effectiveness.
