We are a 501 C 3 Non-Profit Organization

THERE IS A GOD, HE LOVES YOU, AND YOU CAN KNOW HIM PERSONALLY!

This means that there's something more to life than the daily grind. It means that pain, disappointment, and suffering are not the end-all-be-all of your life. It means that Somebody loves you without asking anything in return—no matter how messed up your life is, no matter what you've done.

SO, HOW DO YOU CONNECT WITH HIM?

1. ADMIT to God that you need a Savior. The Bible tells us in Romans 3:23 that "all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God."

2. BELIEVE that God loves you, despite your mistakes. He sent His son Jesus to die for us, so that you can be perfect in God's eyes.

3. CONFESS your faith in Jesus to others. The Bible tells us in Romans 10:9 that "if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved."

PRAYER TO RECEIVE JESUS AS YOUR SAVIOR

God, I confess before you that I am in need of Jesus. I make a choice right now to turn away from my sin and put my trust in you. I believe in my heart that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. I believe that He died and was raised from the dead for me, and I confess Him now as my Lord and Savior. I receive your forgiveness and ask you to come reign in my heart, fill me with your love and your life. Restore me, Jesus. Live in me. Love through me. Thank you, God. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

If you have prayed this prayer, share this joy and meet with someone in the Prayer Tent.

What do I do next?

- Tell someone about your new faith in Christ.
- Spend time w/God daily in prayer and Bible reading
- Seek fellowship with other followers of Jesus

Unspoken first came together after lead singer Chad Mattson met guitarist Mike Gomez on a mission trip in the Dominican Republic. Chad had been struggling with drug and alcohol addiction for years, and decided to go on a mission trip to re-build his relationship with God. It was there in the Dominican Republic where Chad's eyes were opened and he came to know Christ in a powerful way.

After Mike moved to Chad's hometown in Maine, the two began playing music together, and performing live shows. Bass player Jon Lowry and drummer Ariel Munoz from Puerto Rico, later joined the band and Unspoken was born. After working for years as independent artists, and opening for band's such as Casting Crowns, Third Day, and TobyMac, Unspoken released their first studio album Get To Me (June 8, 2012), a record that focuses on the journey of coming back to Christ- similar to what Chad experienced in the Dominican republic.

Their song, "Who You Are," off the album Get To Me, is about God's ability to change anyone regardless of their past. "It's a song that was written for the believer, that was written for the prodigal son, that was written for the lost, for the person who doesn't know Jesus," Chad explains. "It just says that if you come to the cross, that God meets us where we were at, and that he does this supernatural life changing work in us."

Unspoken remains committed to using their music as an outlet to reach people. The band is involved with Celebrate Recovery, a 12-step recovery program for substance abuse. "In the early days of the band, God reminded me that there are thousands of singers better than me and thousands of guitar players better than Mike, but He chose us to do this for Him. We have been chosen to bring a message to the Church...wake up, find your contentment and satisfaction in Him, hang out with Him, and have a real relationship with Him," says Chad. "Yes, we love music and we love people but more than anything we want to see people reach their full potential in Jesus."

Tasha Layton's 2021 smash hit "Look What You've Done" reached the pinnacle of Billboard's Christian Airplay chart and earned her recognition as one of the publication's Top 5 female Christian artists of the year. She has been featured on ABC's GMA3: What You Need To Know, discussing how past struggles have shaped her life and inspired her music; and Layton served as co-host of the 52nd GMA Dove Awards Pre-Telecast last year. Her six-song holiday EP This Is Christmas bowed in October and her guided prayer journal, "Boundless: Moving Freedom From Your Head To Your Heart," also released last fall.

In 2020 Layton was first named one of Billboard's Top 5 female Christian artists of the year on the heels of her breakthrough single "Into The Sea (It's Gonna Be OK)," which was among the biggest hits at Christian radio that year. Prior to her solo career, Layton appeared on Season 9 of American Idol and spent four years as a back-up vocalist for pop superstar Katy Perry. A South Carolina native, her voice has been heard in productions for Disneyland and Cirque du Soleil; she has served as an instructor at the National Praise and Worship Institute at Nashville's Trevecca Nazarene University; and Layton is featured in pro-audio company TC Helicon's book, "The Ultimate Guide to Singing."

KJ-52

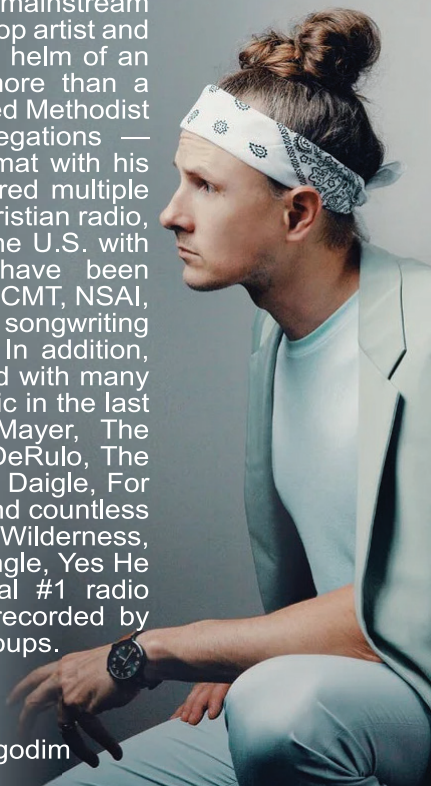

Jonah Sorrentino, better known by his stage name KJ-52, is a Christian rapper from Tampa, Florida. "52", which is pronounced "five two", is a reference to the Biblical story of Jesus feeding the multitude with five loaves and two fish. KJ-52 has won four Dove Awards, three in the "Rap/Hip Hop Album of the Year" category, and additional honors from Behind the Music. He has rapped in the Newsboys cover of "Jesus Freak," and rapped in the tobyMac remix of the song "One World" on the album Hip-Hope. He released his first independent album "Jonah." Following the release of the album, KJ-52 began working on an independent documentary about his life with filmmaker Denver Bailey. The film was released alongside KJ-52's second independent album titled "Jonah Pt. 2" in 2018. In 2019, KJ-52 released What Happened Was, a joint album with CHH producer and 2019 Rapzilla Freshman, PoetiCS. The project was coupled with KJ's first book, also titled What Happened Was. Stars Go Dim formed in 2007 as a mainstream popband. Today it's the moniker for Christian pop artist and songwriter Chris Cleveland. After years at the helm of an acclaimed independent secular band and more than a decade leading worship at Tulsa's Asbury United Methodist Church — one of America's largest congregations — Cleveland found success in the Christian format with his self-titled debut album. The singer has garnered multiple International #1's and Top 5 hits at pop and Christian radio, including the massive No. 1 radio smash in the U.S. with "You Are Loved." Chris and his songs have been nominated and won multiple awards, including CMT, NSAI, Listener's Choice Award, ASCAP, & Billboard songwriting award winners, and Dove Award nominated. In addition, Chris has toured the world, written, and played with many of the biggest artists in pop and Christian music in the last 15 years, including: Justin Bieber, John Mayer, The GooGoo Dolls, Elton John, Billy Joel, Jason DeRulo, The Fray, Natasha Bedingfield, The Roots, Lauren Daigle, For King & Country, Bethel Music, Maverick City and countless more. His newest project, Grace In The Wilderness, released in the spring of 2022, with the first single, Yes He Does, quickly becoming another international #1 radio single. Chris also continues to write songs recorded by many of today's biggest artists and worship groups.

It was when Jordan St. Cyr was a teen and served with Youth With a Mission (YWAM) that he found the inspiration to pursue music as a career. He eventually released an EP, and in the years that followed, he has released more music and has received numerous life-changing opportunities to work alongside many talented songwriters, producers, and artists, all of whom have encouraged him along his journey. St. Cyr dropped his first full-length self-titled album in the spring of 2022 with Seattle-based label, BEC Recordings. The project features the chart-climbing radio hits "Fires" and "Weary Traveler" - both of which offer a pursuit of hope, even in our darkest moments, to know that God gives us stories to share and encourage one another through our fires and weary travels, to give us strength in the midst of them. In 2022, he became a two-time GMA Dove Awards nominee, being recognized for Best New Artist and for Short-Form Video Of The Year ("Weary Traveler"), followed by sweeping the GMA Canada Covenant Awards with six wins. He was recognized as Artist of the Year, Album and Male Vocalist of the Year along with Best Pop Song, Live Music Artist, and AC Artist of the Year.

"God has walked my family through so much these last few years," he shares about his music. "We've been gifted a deeper understanding of what pain and suffering can bring about, and I believe the message of my songs is a gentle reminder of our desperate need for a faithful God. No matter what our current reality is, we can know with assurance that the present-working power of Jesus is with us every step of the way. My prayer is that my songs would bring comfort and joy to those who hear them. I pray that listeners would be more hopeful and open to the depths of God's love for them knowing that their circumstances are not a reflection of how God feels about them. Rather, their circumstances would reveal the closeness and nearness of the Holy Spirit."
