Why Do We Continue the Christian Cross Festival?

The Christian Cross Festival remains a success because it unites people from all churches, bound together in the shared belief in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. The festival is designed to reach both the church and the unchurched in a relaxed, outdoor setting where we extend our faith, friendship, and love for Christ to all who attend. Over the years, countless moments have inspired us to continue this ministry, and we want to share just a few of these powerful stories.

Stories of Transformation and Faith (Names have been changed to protect their identities.)

Teri's Journey of Redemption: Teri first came to the prayer tent seeking guidance and committed her life to Christ that day. A year later, she returned, this time overwhelmed by marital problems. Her husband, Vern, was struggling with drug use and other destructive behaviors, leaving her fearful for their children. A volunteer prayed for God's comfort and control over their situation. Two years later, Teri returned to share that while she and Vern had initially divorced, God worked on Vern's heart. They reconciled through their church, remarried that winter, and now both their faith and relationship are stronger than ever.

Adam's Childlike Faith: At just 10 years old, Adam followed his mother, a festival volunteer, to the prayer tent after hearing a speaker. While his mother prayed with others, a volunteer noticed Adam standing alone and asked if he needed prayer. Adam replied, "I want to give my life to Jesus." Right there, Adam dropped to his knees, folded his hands, and prayed a prayer of acceptance. The volunteer joined him, witnessing the simple yet profound faith of a child.

Julie's Healing: Julie came to the prayer tent, broken and seeking hope. She had been a victim of severe sexual and emotional abuse, leaving her self-worth shattered and thoughts of suicide lingering. Volunteers prayed and cried with her for over an hour. Though estranged from her family, Julie has found a new family in the Body of Christ. She continues to stay connected with our follow-up team and now understands her value as a child of God, confidently proclaiming, "God doesn't make junk!"

A Volunteer's Breakthrough: One volunteer had spent the day helping in various areas but reluctantly agreed to pray with people during the altar call. She silently hoped she wouldn't be needed. When over 150 people came forward, she prayed that God would give her someone she could relate to. A group of young women was assigned to her, and as she prayed with them, she discovered they were dealing with the same struggles she was facing with her own daughter. Their shared tears and prayers brought comfort to everyone involved, and the volunteer left feeling renewed, knowing God had placed her exactly where she needed to be.

Randy's Renewal: Randy, a longtime festival volunteer, took a break to listen to the speaker and later came to the prayer tent. Though he had heard the Gospel many times, this time was different. The message deeply resonated with him, and he shared, "That message hit me hard." After prayer, Randy rededicated his life to Christ that evening. God continues to work powerfully through the festival, touching the hearts of attendees and volunteers alike.

God's Impact Through the Festival

In the last 10 years alone, festival volunteers have prayed with over 1,200 people on the festival grounds. These prayers have covered broken marriages, battles with cancer, suicidal thoughts, abuse, and loneliness. During this time:

- Over 300 people made first-time commitments to accept Jesus as their Lord and Savior.
- Over 700 others recommitted their lives to Christ.

And these numbers reflect only those who filled out response cards! God is the hope these individuals were searching for, and your continued support is what makes this ministry possible.

Our musicians and speakers glorify God with their testimonies and songs of praise, creating a space where lives are transformed, and hearts are renewed. Whether it's your friend, coworker, or child, this could be the year they receive the push they need to experience God's love.
