

Map: The Geography of Beowulf

The map is based on that in Klaeber's edition of Beowulf by kind permission of George G. Harrap and Company. The names of the less important tribes are given in upper and lower case.

The village of Lejre (south-west of Roskilde on the island of Zealand) is often identified with the seat of the Scylding kings. It has been marked as the site of Heorot.
