

The attestations of "smoke" in Omeros

SMOKE.....52

Although smoke forgets the earth from which it ascends,	1.1.34 that rose with the Aruacs' smoke till a new race	1.1.44
But vexed by the smoke for defaming their forest,	1.2.28
He saw the blue smoke from the yards, the bamboo poles	4.1.28
When cutlass cut smoke , when cocks surprise their arseholes	4.1.30 its smoke obscuring soldiers fallen in battle.	5.3.53
His mind drifted with the smoke of his reverie	5.3.60
Wars. Wars thin like sea- smoke , but their dead were real.	5.3.66 rose like smoke from a siege; the Battle of the Saints	5.3.70 to enter the smoke or to skirt it. In that pause	6.2.2
that divides the smoke with a sword, white Helen died;	6.2.3
but smoke leaves no signature on its page of sand.	6.2.7
on the barrel of the belly into thick smoke	6.3.8
wrestling of smoke -plumed warriors was spun	6.3.13 and passed through that door of black smoke into the sun.	6.3.15 waited under springs whose smoke signalled the thunder	10.2.60
The wound closed in smoke , then wind would reopen it,	10.2.70 with gaping, precipitous valleys, where smoke rose	10.3.8
from a charcoal pit, and under the smoke , the lines	10.3.9
A malevolent flower of smoke continued past dawn	15.2.1
at her smoke -shawled beauty, and thought there was no war	15.2.6
of History are written by a flag of smoke ,	18.3.27
by limping Philoctete. Smoke wrote the same story	23.2.15 since the dawn of time. Smoke was time burning. It snaked	23.2.16 tight and thin as a fishline, and the hill's blue smoke ,	24.1.23 returning from his battle with smoke , from the kingdom	25.3.14
Are you the smoke from a fire that never burned?	25.3.60 with the herds that drifted like smoke under low hills,	31.1.13 cracking like Caribs in a pepper smoke , the blue	31.3.2
a Ghost Dancer like that smoke . He described the snow	31.3.9
The wandering smoke below me was like Achille's	34.2.1
arrows of finches; smoke bound me to the Indians	35.2.21 through the black smoke of clouds that made the lake-water	35.3.22

The attestations of "smoke" in Omeros (continued)

SMOKE (continued)

of smoke soaring with Schubert? The cracked glass of Duchamp's	40.3.18 on their sacred ground, the smoke -prayer of the tepees	41.2.15 downhill to the lowland, a flag-fading smoke -wisp estranges	41.2.19 where under gun-barrel chimneys the smoke holds its voice	42.1.47 in their white smoke downhill to the hoot of an owl	43.1.34 in the white smoke , the Sioux, the Dakotas, the Crows.	43.1.48
the leafy sound of far breakers plunging with smoke ,	46.3.6
and for smoke there were the bonfires which the sun catches	46.3.7
smoke came from the glowing rim of the horizon as if	46.3.10
in barracoon back yards the soul- smoke still passes,	49.2.18 of garbage, hens pecked its eyes out, smoke made it cry	49.3.37 in the ebony faces, the sloe-eyes, the bent smoke	52.2.33 with the legend behind my back, the smoke made flesh,	53.1.7 in the blue smoke of Saltibus. Then Achille saw the swift	53.2.35 as fresh as the sea-wind? Why make the smoke a door?	54.2.27 when its light broke through the changeable smoke once more,	58.2.44 had paused in the smoke , not for Omeros's gods	58.2.49 of smoke from his charcoal pit. The archangel showed	61.2.23
the smoke and the scarves of mare's tails, continually	64.2.50
SMOKED .....2
ropes that smoked from the strain. If a single knot frayed,	14.3.20
I smoked on the steps and read the calligraphy	36.1.15
SMOKELESS .....2
in the low hills of Gloucester running with smokeless fire.	41.2.12
a halt in its passage towards a smokeless place.	58.2.54
SMOKING .....1
round the smoking drum. The black dog did dog-dances	31.2.9
SMOKY .....2
He saw the smoky buffalo, a black rider	31.1.11 lament for a smoky Troy, but where coral died	59.2.26
WOODSMOKE .....1
from his enamel pot. The woodsmoke smelt of a regret	46.3.11