

David Roe

Dave currently serves as the Director of Student Services for the East Windsor Regional School District. He has thirteen years of experience in public schools as a school psychologist, supervisor, principal, and director. Prior to working in public education, he has experience as a counselor, working in the field of substance abuse and traumatic brain injury. He holds degrees from the University of Scranton, Kean University, and William Paterson University.