

Peter Bussone and Kerrie Peterson

Pete Bussone and Kerrie Peterson have lived in Hightstown for almost 25 years and raised 5 children here. Together they own and operate a small home improvement business and are very active in the community and have been a part of iCare since its inception.

Pete holds degrees in Law Enforcement and Business Management. He is a member of the EWRSB Board of Education and served on the board of directors for Better Beginnings Child development. He is currently the community/board liaison to the district wellness committee and has been a key proponent of implementing social and emotional wellness programs in the schools.

Kerrie holds degrees in Theatre Performance and Communication Arts. She has been involved with the theatre and musical productions at the middle and high schools as a director, set and costume designer and has served as an adviser for the HHS Drama Club. Kerrie is also the Founder and Executive Director Of Hightstown Theatre, which provides summer performance programs to kids aged 4 through 18, and is currently developing an initiative within the district to use performance theatre as a tool for students to use in promoting anti-bullying and mental health awareness in the schools.
