Join the GLBMA under the Northern Lights Pavilion for a Loons game

Don't strike out! Join us for an evening at the Dow Diamond for a Loons Baseball Game. We have seating under the Northern Lights Pavilion with dinner provided.

Dinner includes a choice of a Burger or Bratwurst, baked beans, corn, coleslaw, pasta salad and potato salad. Served with unlimited soft drinks, cookies and brownies.

We look forward to seeing everyone under the pavilion for a night of meeting other area manufacturing families and of course, some fun.

Michigan Future Business Network

The more business leaders we get to participate in our survey, the more meaningful the results and the greater impact we can have on helping Michigan's economic environment thrive.

Leading a small business is tough. But you don't have to go it alone.

By working together with other business leaders, you can combine your voices to create a thriving economic environment for Michigan's small business community.

That's why we're sharing this survey. In return for the 5 minutes it takes to fill it out, you'll get:

Survey information will be shared once the data has been collected.

Family Friendly Tours = Early Interest in MFG

It's spring break for my 6-year-old grandson Bruce, and I'm spending the week with him in Oakland, California. What to do? We make a couple of trips to the park, looking for rocks on Treasure Island (that was a bust). When did the days get so long? Searching the internet for fun things to do with kids, I find the Jelly Belly Candy Company (link is external) in Fairfield, CA offers free factory tours. Having served my entire career in manufacturing in one capacity or another, I thought this might be fun to share my experiences and knowledge with Bruce, and he might enjoy watching jelly beans being made.
