

Ignatian Spirituality Workshop

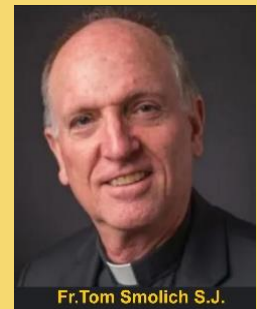

July 10 via ZOOM @ 7 pm- 8:30 pm (P.T.)

Topic:

The Life of St. Ignatius of Loyola and his Spirituality - Finding God in All Things.

Presenter: Fr. Tom Smolich, S.J.

Fr. Tom Smolich, S.J., will be the new rector of the Jesuit community at Santa Clara University's Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley this summer, 2024, and he has a great background, including serving as the international director of the Jesuit Refugee Service (JRS), which has helped over 1.5 million people in 58 countries in 2022.

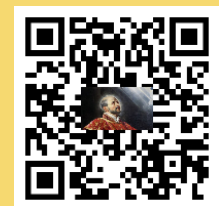

Fr. Tom was also our former provincial of the California Province from 1999- 2005, and he was the president of the Jesuit Conference from 2006-2014.

This is a great opportunity to learn about the Life of St. Ignatius of Loyola and his Spirituality - Finding God in All Things. Please save the date and meet Fr. Tom at the workshop via. ZOOM.
