

I was living on the corner, looking for the time of day.
I was sittin by the water, really had nothing to say.
But a beautiful girl comes round and rocks my world.

I said hey hey baby, do you think maybe, Maybe we can get for a ride?
She said Oh no honey, you ain't got no money ,
So I'm gonna let you slide.

She said I go hard to make it in this world, Go get yourself another girl...
The she said Goodbye

I said you don't know what I see
The view from here is kinda sweet.

Yeah I got a pick up truck...I got a place to be, I might be a nominee... for love.

I'm watching tv, twitter and I see Instagram and TIK TOK is here.
Every one I see.....dances like they be.. only wanna get with me.
But I know they don't, I don't know what they want..
They dress like they going out stomping thru a sexy swamp

I said you don't know what I see
The view from here it's kinda mean
I got a pick up truck ..I have a place to be, I might be a nominee... for love.

I knew that she was trouble when she ordered me a double...
I said it's time I'm on my way..
She said oh no honey, you can call me Sunny, I really think that you should stay.

She said I go hard to make it in this world, You won't find a better girl...
Thats right..

She said you don't know what I see
The view from here is pretty sweet
You got a pick up truck ..and a place to be, You might be a nominee... for love.

I said... I know this world's made of diamonds and pearl, But I got me a better girl.. I think I'll stay....I think I'll stay.
