

ANY DAY NOW

I've been standing outside your door
Through the wind and the rain.
Waiting for an opportunity girl too
Tell you why I came.

You know I saw you...
You were dancing all alone
And I swear in this whole world
There's not an Angel like you girl.

The rain is cold when it hit's my heart
But I won't freeze.
Your smile warms the dark.
Like a summer breeze.

Those people tell me..
That I might be insane.
But I swear in this whole world
There's not an Angel like you girl.

*Any day now, I'll get through to you.
Any way now, I'll get through to you.*

-BRidge-

I've been standing outside your door
So you can see.
I'm the guy you're waiting for.
Take a chance on me,

Most people tell me..
That I might be insane.
But I swear in this whole world
There's not an Angel like you girl.

*Any day now, I'll get through to you.
Any way now, I'll get through to you.*
