ABOUT US

Sal Pietripaoli is the Founder and CEO of SALVATORE INTERNATIONAL, LLC. Sal is an internationally respected security consultant with over 25 years of experience providing executive protection and defensive training. He began his career as a member of the coveted US Marine Corps Scout Sniper Unit. During his time in the unit, he was assigned to the Scout Sniper School in Stone Bay as an assistant instructor for the law enforcement course. He was also responsible for the training of new members in the unit. He served as team leader during Operation Desert Shield/Storm.

He has provided solo escorts of high net worth clients in high-risk environments and coordinated emergency contingency plans with US and foreign agencies. Sal was also director of security for several celebrity clients worldwide, establishing and supervising custom security programs for their needs. He has implemented security protocols for several clients, world tours, movies, TV shows, music videos, award shows, photo shoots, and celebrity vacations. As director, he created and supervised an investigation division to coordinate with local, state and federal law enforcement agencies regarding threats and stalking cases against his clients.

Sal has been requested by studios, corporations, notable security companies, record labels and artists to develop custom security and firearms training programs for their security teams and executive protection details. He has also conducted security consulting services for clients such as Disney Studios, ABC TV Series “Criminal Minds”, ABC 20/20, Sony Music, Hollywood Records and other companies in the entertainment industry.
