“The feast of Mid-Pentecost recalls how Christ aroused a spiritual thirst in the Jews; that is, a thirst for faith in their coming Messiah, for communion with Him, and the grace of the Holy Spirit given by Him. If any man thirst, let him come unto Me, and drink (Jn. 7:37). The Sunday of the Samaritan Woman recalls how from ordinary water, the Lord raised the Samaritan Woman’s thoughts to the comprehension of the water of life, and from bodily to spiritual thirst, that is, to the thirst for hearing His word, to the thirst for the grace of the Holy Spirit, Who arouses spiritual thirst in people.”
- Hieromartyr Thaddeus (Uspensky)
