Pascha Sunday
Resurrection
of the Lord

The feast of Easter is officially called Pascha, the word which means the Passover. It is the new Passover of the new and everlasting covenant foretold by the prophets of old. It is the eternal Passover from death to life and from earth to heaven. It is not merely a historical reenactment of the event of Christ's resurrection as narrated in the gospels. Easter Matins and the Divine Liturgy are celebrated together in the first dark hours of the first day of the week in order to give the experience of the "new creation" of the world, and to allow one to enter mystically into the New Jerusalem which shines eternally with the glorious light of Christ, overcoming the perpetual night and destroying the darkness of this mortal world:

Shine! Shine! O New Jerusalem!

The glory of the Lord has shone upon you!

Exult and be glad O Zion!

Be radiant O Pure Theotokos,

In the Resurrection of your son!

Acts: 1: 1-8

John 1: 1-17
