Commemoration of the Holy Fathers of
The Seventh Ecumenical Council - 787 AD:

The seventh Ecumenical Council, the second Council of Nicaea, was the last recognized by the Orthodox Church.

It ended almost fifty years of iconoclast persecution and established the veneration of the holy icons as basic to the belief and spirituality of Christ's Church.

It was not simply the veneration of the holy images that the fathers defended, but the reality of the Incarnation of the Son of God. It closed the era of the great dogmatic disputes which enabled the Church to describe the bounds of the holy Orthodox Faith.
