The gospels tell of three resurrections carried out by Jesus: that of the widow of Nain's son, that of Jairus's daughter, and that of Lazarus. In each of the three cases, it seems that it is the compassion that Jesus feels for the sorrowing relatives which is the foremost cause of the miracle. The three cases show us Jesus loving and compassionate. If this element of compassion is the first to be emphasized, it cannot be ignored that the miracles of resurrection have another cause, too: they demonstrate that the Messiah has all power over life and death. Some details of today's gospel throw light on this power: there is the authority with which Jesus, by a sign, stops the procession; then the imperative "Arise!" and the evangelist uses the word "Lord" for the Lord of life meets death and human grief.
