Jesus said, “Blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” How do we become “poor in spirit?” By detaching from everything that we hold on to so dearly. To be “poor in spirit” is to be free from things, to nurture relationships that are free and unencumbered by desires and expectations, to let go of our own self-definitions and to rest in the knowledge and experience of God who is “in all places, filling all things.” It is to let go of earthly things, possessions and the cares of this life and to be grateful to God in every situation. In this way we cleanse the inside of the cup, as Jesus said, and begin to shine like the stars of heaven from within.
