Parishioner's Questions

Q: Are we allowed to sit during the Epistle Reading?
A: Yes if you so desire. We should always stand during Gospel Readings and when priest or deacon censes the faithful. There should be no kneeling on Sundays since this is day of Resurrection. Faithful can sit after reading of Communion prayer until Holy Communion is brought out by Father.

June 13 - Attendance in Church: 39

Please let me know of anyone in need of my services!

Names will be posted on Prayer Corner for 1 month. If someone's condition changes, notify Father Nick ASAP.

For bulletin additions, contact Father Nick by Friday 6 pm

Children Learn What They Live By Dorothy Nolte, PhD

If children live with criticism, they learn to condemn. If children live with hostility, they learn to fight. If children live with fear, they learn to be apprehensive. If children live with pity, they learn to feel sorry for themselves.

If children live with ridicule, they learn to feel shy. If children live with jealousy, they learn to feel envy. If children live with shame, they learn to feel guilty. If children live with encouragement, they learn confidence. If children live with tolerance, they learn patience. If children live with praise, they learn appreciation. If children live with acceptance, they learn to love. If children live with approval, they learn to like themselves. If children live with recognition, they learn it is good to have a goal.

If children live with sharing, they learn generosity. If children live with honesty, they learn truthfulness.

If children live with fairness, they learn justice.

If children live with kindness and consideration, they learn respect.

If children live with security, they learn to have faith in themselves and in those about them.

If children live with friendliness, they learn the world is a nice place in which to live.
