Philip's Fast begins on Nov. 28, the day following the Feast of the Holy Apostle Philip and is also known as Nativity Fast. According to the Church Fathers, it is a time of mercy, kindness, compassion, self-examination – a time, which challenges us to personal renewal in the Light of Christ's Gospel. It is a sacred season, during which we are called to make a spiritual journey from wherever we are in the world to the town of Bethlehem and into a cave, the "Holy of Holies", and to a manger, pre-figuring the Chalice of the Eucharist, in order to bring the gift of ourselves to the Jesus Christ, Who is the Bread of Life. In ways that we may never fully comprehend, we make this journey like the Magi, like the shepherds. We each bring our gifts and we dedicate them to Christ. These are gifts willingly given for the good of others – the gold, frankincense and myrrh of our parenting, teaching, healing, friendship and compassion – in other words, our Love for one another.
