Sunday of the Last Judgement

“The end of the world does not signify its annihilation, but its transformation. Everything will be changed, suddenly, in the twinkling of an eye. The dead will resurrect in new bodies — their own but renewed — just as the Saviour arose in His Body, and on it were the traces of the wounds from the nails and the spear...And the Lord will appear on the clouds with glory. How will we see Him? With our spiritual eyes. Even now, at death, righteous people see that which other people around them do not see. The trumpets will sound, loud and powerful. They will trumpet in mankind's souls, in their conscience. And everything in the human conscience will become clear.”
