ON THE SUNDAY OF THE BLIND MAN

“The blind man was healed, not only in the eyes of his body but eventually in his soul as well. He recognizes Jesus as God and does not hesitate to confess it before the religious rulers with courage that many of us would envy. Faith alone is not enough; we also need to confess our faith in order to become genuine children of God. When we confess Christ before men, He will confess us before His Father, as the Lord has promised us: "Everyone who shall confess me before men, I also shall confess him before my Father who is in Heaven; and whoever denies me before men I also will deny him before my Father who is in Heaven" (Matthew 10:32). “

- Homily on The Blind Man by St. John Chrysostom
