Grace shining forth from your mouth like a beacon has illumined the inhabited earth. It has disclosed to the world treasures which wealth cannot buy and has set forth for us the height of humility. The Nativity Fast (St. Philip's Fast/ Pylypivka Advent) is observed from Nov.28 thru Jan. 6. However, with the close proximity of Thanksgiving to the beginning of the fast, the beginning of the Fast may be extended forward a few days to allow for the celebration of Thanksgiving and to prevent the sinful waste of leftover food. The tradition of the Church is to observe a fast from Meat and Dairy Products until Nativity. Please observe this as you are able. All Parishioners are kindly asked as a minimum to observe a Fast from Meat on Wednesdays and Fridays. Christmas Eve, January 6, 2026, is a strict fast day with no meat or dairy products to be consumed. Advent is a time for increased prayer, spiritual reading and for performing acts of charity.
