THE NATIVITY FAST
The Nativity Fast (St. Philip's Fast/ Pylypivka/ Advent) is observed from Nov.28 thru Jan. 6. However, with the close proximity of Thanksgiving to the beginning of the fast, the beginning of the Fast may be extended forward a few days to allow for the celebration of Thanksgiving and to prevent the sinful waste of leftover food. The tradition of the Church is to observe a fast from Meat and Dairy Products until Nativity. Please observe this as you are able. All Parishioners are kindly asked as a minimum to observe a Fast from Meat on Wednesdays and Fridays. Christmas Eve, January 6, 2026, is a strict fast day with no meat or dairy products to be consumed. Advent is a time for increased prayer, spiritual reading and for performing acts of charity.
