As we celebrate our Mother's today and most of us have wonderful memories of days past when our Mothers were here, and we all shared so many memories and those memories come flooding back as we reminisce. But on the flip side there are those who did not have a wonderful childhood or a lot of good memories regarding your childhood, and for this I am truly sorry. It is a challenge for both sets as we tend to think that all Mothers are wonderful, and this is a far cry from the truth. Many were not given the training or example on how to be a good Mother, wife or individual. That is why we were given the Scripture telling us "Proverbs 22:6 (AMP) Train up a child in the way he should go [and in keeping with his individual gift or bent], and when he is old, he will not depart from it. Let's do our best to show compassion for those who have been less fortunate than us.
