"God knows all our sins 'cause they're stored in His cloud."

So thankful that we have a New Year and New Beginnings. A time of Refreshing from the Throne of God. As we enter into the year, we have 365 days that are laid out before us, and we can choose to bring the leftovers from last year into the New Year or we can choose to let them go. It is not always easy to release those hurts, wounds, or words that has been spoken, but it is always our choice what we do. It is a choice that we make, and no one can do it for us. As we read in Philippians 3:12-16 (MSG) I'm not saying that I have this all together, that I have it made. But I am well on my way, reaching out for Christ, who has so wondrously reached out for me. <sup>13</sup> Friends don't get me wrong: By no means do I count myself an expert in all of this, but I've got my eye on the goal, where God is beckoning us onward—to Jesus.<sup>14</sup> I'm off and running, and I'm not turning back. <sup>15</sup> So let's keep focused on that goal, those of us who want everything God has for us. If any of you have something else in mind, something less than total commitment, God will clear your blurred vision—you'll see it yet! <sup>16</sup> Now that we're on the right track, let's stay on it.
